Adams County Public Library Release and Hold Harmless Agreement

I agree that in consideration for and as a condition of the right to borrow this item, I shall forever release and hold harmless and indemnify Adams County Public Library, its officers and employees, from any and all claims for damages, costs, or expenses for personal injuries and/or death or for damage or loss of personal property, occurring as a result of my use and/or participation in the activities associated with the above-named item.

I further acknowledge on behalf of myself, and my minor child/children/or ward(s), that Adams County Public Library no way represents that the activities and the products to be used are safe or healthful. I fully assume the risk that some or all of the items and accompanying activities may be dangerous and could result in personal injury (including death) or property damage and I will in no way hold Adams County Public Library, its officers and employees, responsible for these risks.

This release and hold harmless agreement was voluntarily entered into by me on the date stated above.
